

COOKS RIVER CULTURE AND COUNTRY

Friday 16 June, 2017 from 9am - 4pm
Addison Road Community Centre
142 Addison Road, Marrickville

Join us as we discover and celebrate Aboriginal stories and associations with the Cooks River through sharing traditional and contemporary knowledge.

- 🕒 Learn about a new and comprehensive Aboriginal history of the Cooks River
- 🕒 Hear oral histories of local Aboriginal people in a special exhibition
- 🕒 Explore the Cooks River in 1770 via virtual simulation
- 🕒 Plus musical performances, bush tucker, tours and exhibitions

This is a free community event, bookings are essential.

We respectfully acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the Cooks River catchment, together with other Aboriginal people who have made it their home.

Register below or call 02 9748 9644
culture_country.eventbrite.com.au

This project is supported by the Cooks River Alliance and the Metropolitan Local Aboriginal Land Council, through funding from the Australian Government.