

FREE
bus service!

the COOKS RIVER ECO FESTIVAL

Sunday 10 October, 10am - 2pm, Ewen Park, Hurlstone Park

The Cooks River Eco Festival will offer live music, children's craft activities, an interactive sustainable living house and sustainable living workshops. Festival goers are encouraged to bring a picnic blanket, enjoy live entertainment and food stalls and participate in the activities.

The Cooks River flows from Bankstown to Botany Bay, its catchment covers ~100km² and 13 council areas, including Canterbury, Marrickville and City of Sydney. Join us to celebrate the many benefits of our local waterways and natural environment!!

FREE SHUTTLE BUS - timetable for your local council area

Pick-up / Drop-off Points	Pick-up Time	Drop-off Time
Redfern Station (near Little Eveleigh Street)	9:10 AM	2:10 PM
Erskineville Station (near Bridge Street)	9:30 AM	1:50 PM
St Peters Station (on Lord Street)	9:45 AM	1:40 PM
Addison Road Community Centre (at Addison Road bus stop)	9:55 AM	1:30 PM
Marrickville Station (near Station Street)	10:05 AM	1:15 PM
Cooks River Eco Festival	Arrive at 10:20 AM	Depart at 1:00 PM

RSVPs are essential as seats are limited. For bookings or enquiries: Ph 9748 9649 or email kate.christianson@strathfield.nsw.gov.au, RSVP by Wednesday 6 October 2010.